

English Language Proficiency Requirements Policy

Any student taking the Commercial Pilot Licence or the Flight Instructor Rating course must have good command of the English language. The student must be able to understand, read, write and speak English fluently in order for them to complete the mentioned courses successfully.

Failure to comply with the English Language Proficiency Requirement, the student will encounter difficulties during their training with the potential consequences of increase cost, longer duration or even the possibility of not finishing the course successfully.

Anyone pursuing a career in aviation must be aware that English is the official language in use nowadays.

By signing, I agree that I have read, and understand the English Language Proficiency Requirements Policy.
